

Penn Hills Rising Data Trust Community Connections Agreement

Thank you for participating in the Penn Hills Rising Data Trust. The Community Census is a project of Penn Hills Rising a group of Penn Hills based organizations, local businesses, the community development corporation and non-profits that work together to serve the Penn Hills community.

Penn Hills Rising wants to help you and all census partner organizations connect residents with resources and services to meet needs expressed in your participation in the creation of the Community Census survey instrument. Penn Hills Rising also wants to help you become more connected with residents who may want to support your organization through neighborhood volunteering.

Penn Hills Rising is seeking your agreement in managing the contact info shared with Penn Hills Rising member organizations and other qualified non-profit organizations offering resources to Penn Hills residents with privacy and security. As promised in the census, Penn Hills Rising will not share the contact information of any resident without their permission.

Signing this agreement will allow Penn Hills Rising to share data on residents who have provided their consent to connect them with services, resources, and opportunities you identified you could provide.

As a participating resident of Penn Hills Rising, by signing this agreement I agree that:

- I participated in and support the creation and implementation of the Penn Hills Rising Community Census.
- I agree to handle the data shared with me with the proper privacy and security measures.
- I agree not to share any of this data without documented consent of the participating resident.
- I understand that I can opt out anytime by contacting a member of Penn Hills Rising at pennhillsrising@gmail.com or calling 412.223.7121.
- I understand that this agreement will not guarantee that I am qualified to provide specific services.

By signing this agreement Penn Hills Rising ensures that it will act responsibly in its role of connecting the participating resident with appropriate resources as identified in the Community Census. Penn Hills Rising agrees that:

- Penn Hills Rising will ensure the security of personal information.
- Penn Hills Rising commits to ensuring service providers are informed of how to ensure the security of personal information.
- Penn Hills Rising will share only contact information and relevant information on the resources residents identified that they need.
- Penn Hills Rising will hold themselves and partner organizations accountable to the highest standards of HIPPA confidentiality and professionalism.
- Penn Hills Rising will coordinate communications in a friendly, organized, respectful way.

Signature of the party below constitutes agreement to the above items.

By Organizational Partner Representative Name / Title / Organization Name (please print)

Partner Representative Signature

Date